

Three Reasons to Visit - One Great Weekend
Historic Hospitality, Contemporary Farm Life & Cutting Edge Fine Dining.
On Maryland's Upper Eastern Shore

Experience History:

The 40th Annual Chestertown
Historic House Tour

Saturday, October 2, 2010; 1:00-5:00 PM

Historic Chestertown, one of the National Historic Trust's Dozen Distinctive Destinations, opens its doors once a year for this unique experience. Stroll brick-paved streets on a self-guided walking tour, dropping in on colonial planter-merchants' mansions, craftsmen's cottages restored for modern living, and graceful Victorians. Advance purchase tickets $25; $30 day of the tour; $12.50 children 12 & under; 10% discounts for groups of 25+. Email director@kentcountyhistory.org, visit www.kentcountyhistory.org, 410-778-3499.

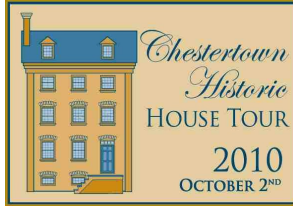

Photo by Rob Crow

Experience Contemporary Farm Life:
Crow Farmstay B&B

Spend the weekend in the newly renovated 1847 farm house B&B with private baths and just 10 minutes from Historic Chestertown. Home-cooked meals, purring barn cats, rustic barns, meandering walking trails, a friendly angus beef herd, and wide open vistas of fields that epitomize the lush heartland of historic Kent County. A 3rd generation family farm, the Crow Farm reflects their passion for maintaining the agricultural authenticity of the area; the addition of a vineyard sustains the natural environment of the farm.

www.crowfarmmd.com.

Experience Farm-to-Table Dining at Crow Farm

October 1, 2 & 3

Imagine a sumptuous meal prepared by a team of top-notch local chefs using the finest local ingredients, served outdoors in the pristine setting of

Crow Farm. Choose from three culinary events - Oktoberfest on the Farm, our Signature Dinner on the Farm or Sunday Supper on the Farm - each with superb menus thoughtfully created using local ingredients from Crow Farm including Angus Beef - for an experience to remember.

www.farmdimmersontheshore.com

Photo by lololly.biz